Permission for the Publication of Student's Images and Work.

Tamahere Model Country School is about to launch an exciting new web site.

Students' pictures and examples of work are an important part of our web site.

No student's name will be used in association with any photographic images. Students' first names will be used to acknowledge pieces of work.

This permission will apply to all photographs and work produced during your child's time at our school.

I give permission for my child/children's photograph/s and work to be used by Tamahere Model Country School in educational, web and media publications. I understand these permissions will apply to all photographs and work produced by my child/children's during their time at Tamahere Model Country School.
